[Music: G. Eikens, lyrics: G. Oosthoek]

Eyes, all I see, what is mean, what is real.
I know how it feels, within you, all is clear.
I see far beyond all your dreams, fantasies.
Tasting the past, what's to come here at last.
Tell me why, reasons why.
Everything's a lie, for
The All-seeing eye.
In this world of lies,
All will pay the price.
Rule and Dominate.
I am the One who sees beyond the pure reality.
I am the One who reigns beyond infinity supreme.
We will reach the earth someday,
'cause our fathers told us so.
We need the will to carry on,
And we feel the will to live.
Tell me why, reasons why.
Everything's a lie, for
The All-seeing eye.
In this world of lies,
All will pay the price
Rule and Dominate,
All your love and your hate.
Follow my Rules, follow my lies.
Pay for your sins, all innocence died.
Ashes to ashes, dust to dust.
Pray for forgiveness and bow to the cross.
Follow my Rules, follow my lies.
Pay for your sins, all innocence died.
Honor my book, follow the path.
Be a slave or feel my wrath.
Everywhere all the worlds and seas,
The eye is spying on all our dreams.
I am the One who sees beyond the pure reality.
I am the One who reigns beyond infinity supreme.
