This time to warriors
Time to great wars
Swords and blades
Glory and grace
Our teachers said:;
"Death to false ones!"
Heirs of the kings!

The sun, surrounded
By the gray clouds
Have seen the smoke of battle
We're with the blazing eyes,
Five lords of the metal

We have meet
At Moscow land
We shall spill
The blood of the aliens
Crown of the steel
Will been in our hangs
We're Orthanc
The metal invaders

We're the keepers
Of the stargates
We're under sign of the sunrise
Strong heavy metal Is wear of the men
Wimps who saw us, run away

We're unholy, but we're
Harder than steel
You don't dream about your victory
Metal in the air
No mercy from blade
Lords of battle ride to the battlefield
