Iâ€™ve spent my life trying to tell everyone
Iâ€™ve got myself, I donâ€™t need anyone
You heard my words but you looked in my eyes
And saw the wall of tears I was hiding behind

You reached for me, I felt your touch
I wanted you, we both needed so much
In a world of lonely people looking for love
Why was I surprised to see it happen to us

Everybody needs someone to love
Everybody wants to love someone
When the nights are long and cold
Everybody needs someone to love
Nobody wants to be alone
When you need someone to hold
Nobody wants to be alone

The days were empty, the nights were so long
I wished on every star until you came along
I knew that someday youâ€™d walk through that door
Sometimes itâ€™s hard but love is worth waiting for

Everybody needs someone to love
Everybody wants to love someone
When the nights are long and cold
Everybody needs someone to love
Nobody wants to be alone
When you need someone to hold
Nobody wants to be alone

Now when you see me cry
Youâ€™ll only see tears of joy in my eyes
In a world of lonely people looking for love
I wish everyone could be as lucky as us

Everybody needs someone to love
Nobody wants to be alone
Everybody wants to love someone
When the nights are long and cold
Everybody needs someone to love
Nobody wants to be alone

When you need someone to hold
Nobody wants to be alone
Everybody needs someone to love
Nobody wants to be alone
Nobody wants to be alone
Nobody wants to be alone
