Raindrops are droppin' heavy as lead
Storm clouds are over the town
What do I care what the weather man said
I won't let it get me down

You won't see me heave a sigh
Sit around and mope
As long as I can see the sky
As long as I can hope...

Here comes the rainbow, shiny and new
Violet and ye-ellow, orange and blue-ue-ue
Here comes the rainbow, colours galore
To show me once more what a rainbow is for

When God makes a wonder, he wants us to learn
To be as he wants us to be
So when you hear thunder don't le-et your head turn
Keep lookin' and soon you will see...

Here comes the rainbow shiny and new
Violet and ye-ellow, orange and blue-ue-ue
Here comes the rainbow, colours galore
To show me once more what a rainbow is for

The fish that you fish for, he might get away
He might live to be nintey-five
And the wish that you wish for may no-ot come your way
Be happy and glad you're alive...

Here comes the rainbow over my head
Pink and pur-urple, sea-green and re-e-ed
Here comes the rainbow, and everything's right
The sky's turnin' bright, what a beautiful sight

Here comes the rainbow shiny and new
Violet and yellow, orange and blue-ue-ue
Here comes the rainbow, with colours galore
To show me once more what a rainbow is for
