It's early in the morning down in the small cafe
The waiters stand there yawning, the people drift away
But just before I go now so reluctantly
Mr. Piano player please do one thing for me...

(Chorus)

One more time, play that song, one more time.
When I hear it play, my spirits start to climb.
I can quote every note, every rhyme,
'Cause it takes me way back when,
To the one who loved me then.
Won't you play that song again, just one more time.

He always used to call me, it seems like yesterday
We'd listen to the music and dance the night away
It's many many years now since we made the break
Please be fore I leave now, just for old times' sake...

Chorus

The words are very simple, You know the melody
So won't you sing along with me...

Chorus 3 times: very slow, faster, even faster, fade
