Who broke the wings that I gave you
Who told your eyes were untrue
Who raped the son that succeeds you
Who putted your feet out of youth

Who stained the star that I bring you
Who rised the flag of no-land
Who blamed the hand that would feed you
Who sings the song without end

Without mercy twice it comes
With poor wings and eyes to burn
Meaningless making the fall
As the arrival from unknown

Too numb to feel
Hear the wheeping goat

Havoc's here to take its own
Future maybe let to grow

Too numb to feel
Hear the wheeping goat
