Sick and tired of hearing you fucking cry.
Piled up the shit pretty high.
Living in this struggle be our proof.
I find that I keep on hitting you.
Still I try to look at it all in a different light.
The path you have chosen you better check it twice.
Hit it down with the sound of a clenched fist.
You piled up the shit pretty thick.
Living in this struggle be our proof.
I find that I keep on hitting you.
Still I try to look at it all in a different light.
The path you have chosen you better check it twice.
Keep all the games you play and wasting all my time.
And I'm sorry again my friend for wasting all your life.
You better keep all the games you play and wasting all my time.
And I'm sorry again my friend for wasting all my life.
