(Louis M. Jones)

I've traveled o'er this country wide a seeking fortune fair
I've been down the two coast lines I've traveled everywhere
From Portland East and Portland West and back along the line
I'm goin' now to a place that's best that old home town of mine.

Oh, eight more miles and Louisville will come in to my view
Eight more miles on this old road and I 'll never more
be blue
I knew some day that I'd come back I knew it from the start
Eight more miles to Louisville the hometown of my heart.

--- Instrumental ---

There's sure to be a girl somewhere that you like best of all Mine lives down in Louisville she's long and she is tall She's the kind that you can't find a rambling through the land
I'm on my way this very day to win her heart and hand.

Eight more miles on this old road and I 'll never more
be blue
I knew some day that I'd come back I knew it from the
Eight more miles to Louisville the hometown of my heart.

--- Instrumental ---

Now I can picture in my mind a place we'll call our home

A humble little hut for two we'll never want to roam
The place that's right for that love site is in those bluegrass hills
Where gently flows the Ohio by a place called Louisville.

Oh, eight more miles and Louisville will come in to my
view
Eight more miles on this old road and I 'll never more
be blue
I knew some day that I'd come back I knew it from the
Eight more miles to Louisville the hometown of my heart...
