(Bobby Osborne)

Memories, memories, mem'ries
Of the one that I'd let go
Memories, memories, mem'ries
Of the one I still love so.

My arms can't hold a mem'ry there's nothing there to hold
And thoughts of you can't warm me when the nights are dark and cold
My lips can't kiss a mem'ry it has no lips to kiss
And just how long will I go on with memories like this.

Memories, memories, mem'ries
Of the one that I'd let go
Memories, memories, mem'ries
Of the one I still love so.

--- Instrumental ---

Mem'ries of the one I still love so...
