(Bobby Osborne - Pete Goble)

I'm the son of a sawmill man
The son of a sawmill man
I've cut big timber all over this land
I'm the son of a sawmill man.

My papa was a sawmill man
I've heard some people say
He was just as tall as the timber he worked
Until his dying day.

He was hard as the oak but his heart
Was as soft as the pines in Georgia land
And I'm just a chip from the same old block
I'm the son of a sawmill man.

I'm the son of a sawmill man
The son of a sawmill man
I've cut big timber all over this land
I'm the son of a sawmill man.

--- Instrumental ---

I'm the son of a sawmill man
The son of a sawmill man
I've cut big timber all over this land
I'm the son of a sawmill man.

I was born among the mighty red wood trees
Where you'd think they reach the sky
Papa worked hard and his pay was small
But we always did get by.

The first thing I remember
I had a saw in my right hand
So I'm just a chip from the same old block
I'm the son of a sawmill man.

I'm the son of a sawmill man
The son of a sawmill man

I've cut big timber all over this land
I'm the son of a sawmill man...
