(Boudleaux Bryant - Felice Bryant)

I've got tears in my heart, tears in my eyes
Tears on my pillow when the sun wakes up the skies
Why are we through where will I find Tears enough to wash you from my mind, from my mind.

Lonesome dewdrops, dews of sorrow
Where do they come from where do they go
Rain this evening, rain tomorrow
Oceans of sadness because I miss you so.

I've got tears in my heart, tears in my eyes
Tears on my pillow when the sun wakes up the skies
Why are we through where will I find
Tears enough to wash you from my mind, from my mind.

--- Instrumental ---

Friendless waters I have got 'em
Where is the sunshine where has it been Well of misery has no bottom
Here I go crying rivers again.

I've got tears in my heart, tears in my eyes
Tears on my pillow when the sun wakes up the skies
Why are we through where will I find
Tears enough to wash you from my mind, from my mind...
