(Cliff Bruner - A. Lyle)

Unfaithful one your tears are falling
At least you're paying for all your fun
Too many honest hearts you've broken
Go on and cry unfaithful one.

So now you found you were mistaken
You thought your game was almost won
The time has turned and left you weepin'
Go on and cry unfaithful one.

--- Instrumental ---

So now you found you were mistaken
The storms of loneliness have come
The time has turned and left you weepin'
Go on and cry unfaithful one.

Go on and cry unfaithful one...
