(Traditional)

I am bound for that bright city
Where the streets are paved with gold
Where in peace I'll dwell forever
All the joys can never be told.

Will you meet me over yonder
And with happy millions dwell
Will you meet me over yonder
Where we'll never say farewell?

--- Instrumental ---

That will be a happy meeting
With the dear ones passed away
Oh, the joy of that reunion
In that land of endless day.

Will you meet me over yonder
And with happy millions dwell
Will you meet me over yonder
Where we'll never say farewell?

--- Instrumental ---

Brother say how are you living
Should he call for you to go
Are you ready for the summons
Is your robe made white as snow?

Will you meet me over yonder
And with happy millions dwell
Will you meet me over yonder
Where we'll never say farewell?...
