I'm tired of your open mouth
Crawling inside my skin
And this play we never quit
The fight within the cross begun

Say that it's too late
When a man's gotta learn to hate

Forget the time I said I would Replace me with but never will
Beyond the facts that are in your face
Ignore the facts beyond your nose

Said it's too late
When a man's gotta learn to hate

Grow up

Not without meaning
No response, not a feeling

Just grow up
