When I'm crowded yet I feel all alone
It's your smile that gives me peace in this world
When the pain of a broken heart is in me
Your love is what shines deep in me

Oh, the beauty of your eyes that I see
It's you and your heart that I want to keep

Beautiful girl, look at your self
I imagine you right next to me
Beautiful girl, tender and warm
Your beauty brings me to my knees
It's you and your heart that I want to keep
Beautiful girl

When I feel this need to dream about you
Every night I feel this peace go through me
And when in your room your crying all alone
I feel your pain and want to sing you this song

Oh, the beauty of your eyes that I see
It's you and your heart that I want to keep

Beautiful girl, look at your self
I imagine you right next to me
Beautiful girl, tender and warm
Your beauty brings me to my knees
It's you and your heart that I want to keep
Beautiful girl
