Cover Me in contact
My edges are folding

Return Me to the paper back section my three quarter binding it needs some attention

Set up a chair outside the square i'm an open book

An now that the book is open i read the pages
down sloping

i'll lick your fingers as you turn the page find out more of this dark age so set up a chair outside the square A second glance give me a chance im an open book misunderstood please return my plastic sleeve, my plastic sleeve so look in these eyes and you'll see a sunrise of a broken mourning look at my rounded shoulders there creased from being folded too many times there creased from being folded too many times ohh too many times

so lick your fingers as you turn the page
find out more of this dark age sign your name on the card, sign your name on the card,

sign your name on the card,

second class could be your chance im an open book thats understood please return my plastic sleeve, my plastic sleeve
