Today I'll run away
Run away and leave me behind
Become an armored heart
I've played the little fool for the last time

I'm just a poor design, I give up all the time
I feel my hands clench now it's fight or flight

Chorus
Goodbye to good enough
Goodbye to playing rough
Goodbye to all this, I've had enough
How did I end up
end up so fragile and shy
Relegated to the sidelines
I smile and say alright, I only wanna try one time

I fill up on fear, but that ends right here
I've held my tongue long enough for one lifetime

Chorus
