"Among Mist And Shadows..."

From the depths of unholy forests
I hear dark voices pronouncing my name
A freezing wind blows on my face
Bringing back memories once forgotten

Powers of the Moon are within me
Beyond Time:
I am the Keeper of the darkest secrets...

An endless night shelters me...
The moonlight shows me a path
Through the mist...
I know I have to follow the Ancient Wind
... I can't live anymore...

Meant to follow in their ways...
In a time... In a place I wasn't born for...
I denied...
- I own the powers of darkness -
- I own the ancestral knowledge -
- The Black Might made me free -

I carry the dark sign...
My blood is as cold as ice...
And my soul, as gloomy as the sky...

Beyond the gate of stone
I carry my hate, my bitterness...
And I know, I'll be back
Even through the Shadows of the Ages
I was meant to live under the Sign of the Dark Star

[Winter 1994]
