Take me again
Back into veins
Sear my invisible wounds
And bless me under your wings
Thousands of mistakes
I have done in may way
So many losses and wastes
Left in those days
My soul is burning to ashes
On the black fire of yearning
I have forgotten since when
The pain inside has been growing
Thousands of mistakes
I have done in may way
So many losses and wastes
