{Dresden + Johnston Remix}

she turned her head away
he said everything is fine with a dark and heavy heart she danced with her head down danced with her head down

if I'm falling in love
is this how it could be
i don't want us to come down

black rainbow sky lights go live hearts in our eyes all is sweetness and light

i wanna be just like you tell all the world leave me behind fill this world and make it nice it's yours to keep tonight

I'm yours to keep tonight
