[Spoken:]

Hi, this is the big O, Otis Redding
I was just standing here thinking about you Thought I'd write a song about you
And dedicate it to you
Take a listen

[Sung:]

If you didn't go back to school this year your really not groovy
Maybe you feel that school is a drag it's just don't moving But did you ever think about how square you look standing in an employment line because school didn't empty you
You really ought to think about it
Without an education you could only be a tramp
Grow ?grain? shoes, no haircut, just plain ole country
Don't worry 'bout the fellows gonna calling you green
Because your heading no future condition
You really ought to think about it
And further motto than that Otis Redding saved you very wise
Because you'll be at the top
When they get that and if they make it
When they get that and if they make it
When they get that and if they make it
You really ought to think about it
Think about it
Really ought to think about it
