When something is wrong with my baby
Something is wrong with me
I know when she's a little worried
I feel that same old misery

We've been through so much together
We stand as one and that's what makes it better
When something is wrong with my baby
Something is wrong with me

Just what she means to me
You out there just can't understand it
People can say my woman, she's no good
But she's my woman and I know, I'm her only man

And if he's got a problem
I got to help him solve 'em
When something is wrong with my baby
Something is wrong with me
