

Our Innocence Lost

"Sleep Tonight"

As I fall asleep at the wheel
Drift across from left to right
No one there to pull me near Finally I'll sleep tonight

With the last breath I take in Spiral round that final bend
Whisper now this is the end of time

What would you say
What could I do
What have I put you through
Hear the cries
Feel the pain
No one else will know my name

Now we lay here cause we're paralysed
The shining lights show in my rear view mirror
Now we lay here cause we're paralysed
Trapped by our mistakes and our deep and dark desires

Now it's cold and I can't move
Three lives are gone it's all my fault
No one could stop me then
Now they needn't bother

What would you say
What could I do
What have I put you through
Hear the cries
Feel the pain
No one else will know my name

Shining lights show in my mirror
They seem close but they are nearer
Never saw me coming, never heard the cries
Now we lay here paralysed
