Well, it's good to know that you'll be okay
I've been waiting for this
And I'll be there to sit while you pray
No one's blaming me
I'm not supposed to wait when they open up your heart

Oh I, I have been good, I understood
Like a machine I'll fix you from the start
I'm in repair, life that we share
I know that I'll be lost and
But we're always in repair

Lock the door
Lock the door
Lock the door
Lock the door
Lock the door
Lock the door

And it's good to know that you'll drive away
From this car crash nightmare
And I'll be there to help you again
And there's no danger
We're just killing time again when they order up new parts

Oh I, I have been good, I understood

Like a machine I'll fix you from the start
I'm in repair, life that we share
I know that I'll be lost and
But we're always in repair

Take this time to figure it out
Know the wires, the fuse, the things that you doubt
The wheels, the air, the metal, the mouth
Something, something, something

Oh I, I have been good, I understood
Like a machine I'll fix you from the start
I'm in repair, life that we share
I know that I'll be lost and

Oh I, I have been good, I understood
Like a machine I'll fix you from the start
I'm in repair, life that we share
I know that I'll be lost and
But we're always in repair

Lock the door
Lock the door
Lock the door
