I saw the fire you set
I saw them all screaming

The flame turned everything to ash
Every last one of them gone
If nothing else you did your deed well
Did your deed well

I saw the families
Struggle through all the pain

But they won't ever forget
That dark day you caused
They can never forget
They will never forget
If nothing else you did your deed well
Did your deed well

You have no where to run
I'll take your fucking life

I will destroy everything you know
Set balance back to this world
If nothing else I'll do my deed well
Do my deed well

There is wicked in this world
I see it every day
All cowards and thieves alike
Another name off my list
I am not the reaper
But you are in my sights
Everyone must pay
For what is not theirs
I am not the reaper

I am the avenger
I am judge and jury

I am the avenger
Here to take all that is wrong

And set it right
I am judge and jury
This is my duty
My blessing my curse

I am the avenger
I will take what is wrong
And set it right
I am judge and jury
This is my duty
This is my blessing
My curse
I am the balance

I am the fucking balance
This world would fall without me
I am the fucking balance
