And it ends

While the surface collapse under me
It's no longer in sight
Darling just you know you're fading away

It pulls in deeper second by second (x4)

Help me to find faith and hope
To escape her demise
Help me to find faith and hope
To escape her demise

Help me... to find hope
Help me to find hope now (now)

Charish the glance you've chose
The opposite road
Charish this glance you've chose
This opposite road

It's like we're going back
To once was a complete dream
We watched the city lights burn away
Listen to the sound of distress

(In background)
Charish the glance you've chose
The opposite road
This opposite road
