She sneezed a million times,
while he took at her with a knife,
hooo, hooo, hooo
always wishing it would stop,
but sometimes it felt so nice.

Hooo, hooo, hooo
she cleans the floor with her teeth,
while the eyes are upon her back...

knowing this wasn't right
somehow she got the knack.

Only the deepest of hearts...
Only the deepest of hearts...
Could explain my love of you.

She peels back her nails,
that everything was better...
and when the skin swelled around her heart
she used a pin that erector

Oh he was hers now...hers for forever,
that's all that mattered
If Jesus could make the sacrifice,
well so could she.

Oh put a nail through her hands,
A nail through her heart...
That's what she was born for...
And that's all she wanted to be.

Only the deepest of hearts
Only the deepest of hearts
Could explain my love of you...

Only the deepest of hearts
Only the deepest of hearts
Could explain my love of you...
