So cave me in and let me win
I don't care just keep alive for tonight

I'm sorry you're so tired
I'm sorry I can't sleep the world away
For you I'd try to close my eyes forever
And you'll see I'm really banking on meant to be
I'm really hoping this mess is me

I'm sorry you're so tired
I'm sorry I can't sleep the world away
For you I'd try to close my eyes forever
And you'll see I'm really banking on meant to be
I'm really hoping this mess is me

I'm seeing some things fall like rain
I'm dreaming of dreaming it drives me too insane
I want to need to love
I want to be a piece of
Sleep the world away
