I never met anyone
Who would choose someone new over us
I guess sixteen years means nothing these days

You deserve so much more
Than someone who will fuck you over

Remember translating what I said
We've had sleepless nights
Wondering if you'll be alright
Please tell me where the hell you have been

You deserve so much more
Than someone who will fuck you over

Sixteen years is a long time to be there for me
Why stop now?
Why stop now?
