Let's break the silence with sound,
Of realizations that I've found.
Are you with me?
Are you with me!

If I could I'd say it to your face,
But you're just so far away,
And I'm buried down with brothers,
Who forgot the right things to say.
So If I have to
(I'll make it simple)
I'll remember all the right things to say,
But screens apart; I'm ready for a change.

This could be the best idea ever!

Now, it's late and the digits hit 6,
I'm ready to fall back in the dark.
Right before I hit the ground,
I swear I saw a spark.
I saw the sun between the blinds.
I saw the truth behind your eyes.
& I saw a window to climb through,
To take me away from you.
I turn to you,
You turn to me,
That's when our eyes really meet.
I swear to God,
I wont die alone.
I've seen the end of my life
And it's not here.

I've seen the end of my life
And it's not here!
