"Lifting The Weak"

Visit "Lifting The Weak" on MotoLyrics.com

Why seek out the truth in a world of lies
To unmask right in wrongs disguise
To be sincere in the crowds that fall
And not to be satisfied with less than your all
Lifting of the weak
Starts inside
Your compromise
Choose your side
Or stand aside
Your pride can be your best friend or your enemy
It can tear from side to side to mediocrity
Faith in what can be accomplished with your life
Decide to choose a higher standard for your fight
Your life sets the stage
Be strong in your beliefs
And lend a helping hand
To life the weak to stand
