Lying in my room so quiet so cold
Trapping within my lonely mind
I hear the last sighs of a fading world
And feel the flames of anguish burnin' up my heart
I've lost the real me
Believing in men's sanity
Now I've found myself alone
Somebody save me
Before I'm gone

[Chorus:]
Down on my knees I'm falling
Deep in my soul
I hear a desperate calling
Life slips away from my hands
Day by day and I still can't understand
Cannot stand this lies
Cannot take the blame
All I can do is feel the pain

Strange things keep goin' on outside my door
Lord, I can't face this anymore
Everyday a starving child is born
Somewhere an angry crowd starts
Fighting a new war
Don't feel I'm part of this
Don't wanna be blamed for your sins

[Chorus]

Cannot reason why / It's driving me insane
All I can do is feel the pain

Maybe I was wrong
And the whole world was right
I should have closed my eyes from all this lie
I feel my time has come
I just don't wanna cry
The pain has caught me right deep inside
Cannot stand this lie
Cannot take the blame

All I can do is feel the pain
