Taken for slavery
Trafficked to the godless

Defiled by depravity
Dolls for the vile perverse

Wronged by this fallen world
A malady vast and deep
Wronged by this fallen world
Victims of sickening crimes
O daughters, your Father weeps for you

Yet His anger compounds against
Against those who are culpable
His wrath will rise upon this evil
His justice will be done
His justice will be done

Cherished, beloved, depredated
His Justice will be done

O daughters, your Father weeps for you
O daughters, your Father weeps for you
O daughters, your Father weeps for you
O daughters, your Father weeps for you
