Closed within my thoughts
Thinking about my life
I can't fall asleep
In the still of this night
People around me
Stare at the frozen sky
And a cold wind blows
Blinding all my sight

Am I alive?
Can I survive?

[Chorus:]
Out there the snow falls
Killing all kinds of life
No trees, no sea and no sun
The world is painted in white
Take me away
I wanna see a burning sky
Save me from this nuclear winter
Show me some kind of light

From inside this shelter
I see a deadly black bird
Crying an old sad song
To a land once called earth
I'm cold and weak
My mind is such a torment
I'm lost and confused
I'm dying at each moment

Am I alive?
Can I survive?

[Chorus]

Dreams that once I had
A little boy's fantasy
Now they're all gone
That's the end for me

[Chorus]
