Turn on the engines of fear...
Turn on the engines of pain...
Turn on the engines of madness...
Turn on the engines of life and death...

One more child born
Under the sun
Boy or girl it doesn't matter
Just a working one

Born dead, their fate is written
Life's shift has just begun
Behind a mask of freedom
Lies the technological Scum
Another slave's been made
In the zombie factory
What are these things we create?

[Chorus:]
Machines remove their souls
Empty bodies the state controls
Another slave awakes for life
No name, no identity
Just the reigning ideology
Another zombie's working to death
In the zombie factory

One more working stiff under control
The stupid fools are powerless, filling the role

Strong chains look up their freewill
Mouth shut, just obey
Carrying the cross of anguish
Ready for an endless day
Another slave has died
A replaceable kind of life
'Cause real zombies never die

[Chorus]

Turn on the engines of fear...
Turn on the engines of pain...

Turn on the engines of madness...
Turn on the engines of life and death...

Another slave's been made
In the zombie factory
We're everything we create

[Chorus]
