Verse:

You want to break
You feel the weight of the world on you
You can't escape
The thought that your someone who
Has sealed his fate
No one to blame
You've lost the strength
But help is on the way

Chorus:

Yeah you want to break
No one can bare the weight

Verse:

You want to break
You feel the weight of the world on you
Don't hesitate
To call upon someone who
Knows your fate
Can guide your way
He has the strength
To wipe the past away
