Verse:

She stands silently thinking
About the time she first met You
It seems so long ago
After all her years of running she Wonders if you can get her through
Or is she a forgotten soul

Chorus:

No one can take me, out of Your hand
I will cling to you with every breath
Out of the darkness You still stand
Giving faith to all whose faith has left

Verse:

That still small voice had faded from him
During his teenage years
He couldn't hear it anymore
As he thought of his forgotten commitment
He fought back his tears
What else are they good for
