It came so quickly, upon our land
Their ways and deeds, supreme command

Across the sea, amidst the horizon
Overlorde forever binds us

Out in the darkness, I hear them calling
Stand up and fight, our kingdom is falling
Must hold tight, I feel them draw nearer
Feel all their might, our defeat seems much clearer

Overlorde, drop to your knees
Your cities in ruin, we take what we please
Overlorde, destruction's at hand
Overlorde, supreme command

Now that we've taught you, all of our ways
I say you must listen, for short are your days

Overlorde, drop to your knees
Your cities in ruin, we take what we please

Overlorde, destruction's at hand
Overlorde, supreme command

Overlorde [x4]
