Well, I get bored really easy and
It takes a lot to please me
I guess that's why I always hit the road
At least we had the weekend
So don't cry now 'cause I don't send
You flowers like we're going steady, go

But let me paint you a picture
Here put on my shoes
See there is no us, there's only you and
That's my sunset to walk into, see

I don't want no regular
I don't want no regular
I don't want no regular thang

I don't want no regular
I don't want no regular
I don't want no regular thang

Well, I don't write many love songs and
I've gotten used to so longs
I make my bed, but usually use the floor
And it's not that you ain't sexy
'Cause you know how you affects me and
Believe me I've been called that name before

But I've got these special glasses
That use rose colored hues
Well, I'm sorry if I broke your heart
Here's fifty bucks, go buy some glue, 'cause

I don't want no regular
I don't want no regular
I don't want no regular thang

I don't want no regular
I don't want no regular
I don't want no regular thang

You probably think I've got a problem
You probably think you're the one to solve them

Well no one that I know could be more wrong
Don't think that you can change me
'Cause there's no home on the range, see
Like Garbo, I just want to be alone

I wanna be alone, alone
I wanna be alone, alone
I wanna be alone, alone
I wanna be alone, alone

I don't want no regular
I don't want no regular
I don't want no regular thang

I don't want no regular
I don't want no regular
I don't want no regular thang

I don't want no regular
I don't want no regular
I don't want no regular thang

I don't want no regular
I don't want no regular
I don't want no regular thang

I don't want no regular thang
