Last night in my dreams
I saw you with another
And when I turned around you were gone
It all came back to me
Trough a postman and his letter
That bought the words "I fell in love with another"
How does it feel when you wake up in the morning
Do you ever think of me lying here
Cause when I go to bed, you become my pillow
And I hold you tight and whisper in your ear
Does he hold you the way I used to
Does he smile at you from the centre of his heart
Does he live for you, would he die for you
If you told him that you want him to
Could he love you the way I always will
Well could you ask him to
I ventured out today
I really wished I hadn't Cause everything I seen and heard made me think of you
I know that I have to get over you but the present I'm finding is hard
To do
So I beg you please to take a moment to ask
Does he hold you the way I used to
Does he smile at you from the centre of his heart
Does he live for you, would he die for you
If you told him that you want him to
Could he love you the way I always will
Well could you ask him to
Now I'm a speck on your horizon
A fading light inside your eye
I've come to understand that you were far beyond me
But I'll never understand exactly the reasons why
You were explained to me
Does he hold you the way I used to
Does he smile at you from the centre of his heart
Does he live for you, would he die for you
If you told him that you want him to
Could he love you the way I always will
Well could you ask him to
