I don't want to be your hero,
I don't want to ever let you down,
No I don't want to let you down,
I can try to take you higher,
But I don't want to wear your broken crown,
You know it brings me down

Don't think you'll ever understand me,
I don't even understand me,
Don't have the power to anoint you,
And I don't want to disappoint the fools no more,
The fools no more

I couldn't answer all your questions
And if you're lost I could not find your way,
I couldn't find your way,
You know you have to face the music,
You change your tune but don't know what to play,
So don't you run away

Everybody's talking crazy,
Some think I'm a devil maybe,
I don't want to hear about it,
Don't want to have to scream and shout at the fools no more,
The fools no more,

So I don't wanna be your hero,
Don't wanna sit up on your crippled throne,
I've got a life of my own,
I am not your destination,
Or a road that's gonna lead you home,
So baby please don't go
Please don't go(repeat and fade)
