Ozzy Osbourne
"Psycho Man"

The midnight hour approaches
The killing chill takes over him
His victims will not know
When he appears

The lust of death's possession
Will over take his psycho mind
He won't be happy
Till he smells the fear

(He's the angel of death)
Psycho man, psycho man
(Angel of death)
Looking for a victim wherever he can

(He's the angel of death)
Psycho man, psycho man
(Angel of death)
He's the killer

Addicted to the madness
The taste of death that lives within
He loves it when he
Tastes their final breath

Stalking gives him pleasure
Killing is the final act
He takes no pity
With his lust for death

(He's the angel of death)
Psycho man, psycho man
(Angel of death)
Looking for a victim wherever he can

(He's the angel of death)
Psycho man, psycho man
(Angel of death)
He's the killer

Playing in his twilight zone
He knows that he's the best

Tripping through the streets alone
Till he finds his victim next

Killing gives him pleasure
Sleeping gives him pain
The only time he's feeling good
Is when he's killed and killed again

When he's killed again
When he's killed again
When he's killed again
When he's killed again

When he's killed again
When he's killed again
Watch out

(He's the angel of death, angel of death)
(He's the angel of death, angel of death)

(He's the angel of death)
Psycho man, psycho man
(Angel of death)
Looking for a victim wherever he can

(He's the angel of death)
Psycho man, psycho man
(Angel of death)
He's the killer

(He's the angel of death)
Psycho man, psycho man
(Angel of death)
Looking for a victim wherever he can

(He's the angel of death)
Psycho man, psycho man
(Angel of death)
He's the killer

(He's the angel of death)
Psycho man, psycho man
(Angel of death)
Looking for a victim wherever he can

(He's the angel of death)
Psycho man, psycho man
(Angel of death)
He's the killer
