social weapons that miss pretend them to save cowards bastards to shame condemned social slaves

here to save the freaks again, you think and I bet you always will
here to save the freaks again,
you think, here, here to save the freaks.
here to save the freaks again,
you think, here, here to save the freaks.

snakes causing the fate sadistic and free, so free traders, defendents behave lieges stay away, from me oh, saints keep knocking go home dont sell me mary, no no making the crazies well inside

calling us no good, you are the social enemies.
we change the people day to day making us no good you are the social enemies.
changing the people day to day agitators talking the show messaging with the heads to be the number one smashers battling the hiv's proud of yourselves arent you making the crazies well inside

calling us no good, you are the social enemies.
making us no good you are the social enemies.
calling us no good, you are the social enemies.
making us no good you are the social enemies.

why must we play, so bitter me i'm suffering now the nowhere me, stop trying to say, you fell into this place

so tragic you found the nowhere me

here to save the freaks again

you think here, here to save the freaks (the nowhere me)

you think here, here to save the freaks (the nowhere
me)

me)

here to save the freaks again

here to save the freaks again
