"Bad Looks Good On You"

All day you're havin' to play the good girl
And you never be letting your guard down
But when the nighttime calls you to a different world
You turn your attitude around

With just a little bit of intimate danger and a lot of genuine mystery
When the music's jumpin', it starts to change ya
You got your tight red dress, high heeled shoes
And a new barbed wire tattoo, baby, bad looks good on you

It's not like you're shakin' it for the first time
Only a fool wouldn't realize
And the way you move's about to blow my mind You've got me wild-eyed and hypnotized

With just a little bit of intimate danger and a lot of
genuine mystery
When the music's jumpin', it starts to change ya
I'm mesmerized by the way you move, keep doin' the things you do
Bad looks good on you

Underneath your angel face, there, hidden in a darker place
A place where only you can go and no one else can see
And as the darkness starts to fall, your inner voice begins to call A wilder spirit trying to break free
