You know I've seen plenty like you, trouble ain't enough Runnin' your mouth, there ain't no doubt, thought you were pretty tough
I remember all your dirty ways you know my daddy didn't raise a fool With friends like these I don't need no enemies, what's a man to do?

With a firestarter, you got trouble in sight
A firestarter, someday you're gonna see the light
You got no heart, you live your life never treated
nobody right
Firestarter, tell me, who you gonna burn tonight?

I remember people like you even back in school Stirrin' up trouble, got your mind in the gutter, thought you were pretty cool
I remember what my daddy said, said two-faced ain't the way
I can't see for the life of me how you're standin' here today

With a firestarter, you got trouble in sight
A firestarter, some day you're gonna see the light
You got no heart, you live your life never treated
nobody right
Firestarter, tell me, who you gonna burn tonight?

You know I've seen plenty like you, trouble ain't enough
Runnin' your mouth, there ain't no doubt, thought you
were pretty tough
I remember all your dirty ways you know daddy didn't raise a fool
With friends like these I don't need no enemies, what's
a man to do?

With a firestarter, you got trouble in sight
A firestarter, some day you're gonna see the light
You ain't nothin' but a big time liar never treated
nobody right
Firestarter, who the hell you gonna burn tonight

Firestarter, firestarter, firestarter Firestarter, firestarter
