Stopped by your house
They said you weren't home
But maybe they lied
I would have known if you had come or gone

'Cause I stood by your gate
Two days in a row, finally left you a note
Said I remember how you smiled at me
And how you picked me out of the crowd

It's funny how the guy next to me
Swore that it was him
You singled out

Wherever you go, I'll follow
'Cause I'll never leave you alone
To the ends of the earth, I'll follow
'Cause I just can't leave you alone

You play hard to get
Got me climbin' the walls
And I took the fall
And got chased by your security dog

If I change my look
Maybe then you would see
Maybe you'd notice me
I'll become whatever you want me to be

I know, someday I'll be your guest
All my friends say I'm crazy
The man from the magazine says I'm obsessed

Wherever you go, I'll follow
'Cause I'll never leave you alone
To the ends of the earth, I'll follow
'Cause I just can't leave you alone
Wherever you go, I'll follow
And I'll never leave you alone
To the ends of the earth, I'll follow
And I just can't leave you alone

You may think I'm extreme
But you sang to me 'Live out your dream'
So I can't let you slip away now
If my dreams die, then I die
And I know someday, somehow

I know someday I'll be your guest, yeah
All my friends say I'm crazy
The man from the magazine says I'm obsessed

Wherever you go, I'll follow
'Cause I'll never leave you alone
To the ends of the earth, I'll follow
And I just can't leave you alone

Wherever you go, I'll follow
And I'll never leave you alone
To the ends of the earth, I'll follow
'Cause I just can't leave you alone

Yes, I'll follow
I just can't leave you alone
I just can't leave you alone
I just can't leave you alone

Yeah, yeah, yeah
I just can't leave you alone
