I was feelin' like a prisoner inside myself
I saw you, lookin' like you might be
In a mood to try anything that was new

Don't be starved for the love and laughter
Break through touch a stranger
You only get one life

This night could be like no other night
If you and me find the fire in our hearts
And dance in the light, yeah

We'll take our chances, how can we lose?
We're making our own rules
This night can be like no other night

There's a child I can see in the back of your eyes
Dyin' to be set free
Let the hunger inside you bring it alive

Now baby, this night
Won't last forever, break loose
Girl remember, you only get one life

This night can be like no other night
If you and me, find the fire in our hearts
And dance in the light, yeah

We'll take our chances how can we lose?
We're makin' our own rules
This night will be like no other night, yeah-e-yeah

Time you don't use, you lose it
You grab every moment you can, before it's gone
When you can feel, you really know that you're alive
Show that you're alive, for one night and

This night can be like no other night
If you and me, find the fire in our hearts
And dance in the light, oh yeah

We'll take our chances, how can we lose?

We're makin' our own rules
This night will be like, be like no other night
