

After Crying

"Come"

Come join your inner wonderland
A place of all you don't understand Come join this labyrinth deep within The place of all miracles of your mind

Come join the magic, the power that you create Come be aware it's an illusion you have made

Come join the flow that guides you through a restless
mind
Come join the flow that moves the night

You've passed the gates now, the door to inner wonderland
You've passed the gates made to create the borders of your dream

Come enter further, do you dare?
Come face the hell you daily bear Come pass the borders of what's real Come touch and see and feel

Come join the flow that guides you through a restless
mind
Come join the flow that guides you through a restless
mind

[Come, Join, Enter]

Come join this flow
Come join us, all here within your mind
Come join the magic, your body is weightless You roam and you are anyone you can be Come join this flow
Come join us all, here beyond your mind

As you enter this inner flow, your second part begins And while the night embraces you, you deal with the day

Come join the flow that guides you through a restless
mind
Come join the flow that guides you through a restless
mind
