Hey mama sorry for the things that i have done you will always be my number one im sorry (OoOhhh yeah) hey mama you will always be my shining star held me tight when i was in your arms im sorry (mami im sorry OoOoOoOoOhhhhhh yeah) madre querida se que te rompi el corazon vine a perderte el perdon (ay mami OoOoOoOoOhhhhhh

Tu eres mi vida porque es que yo canto esta cancion vine a pedirte el perdon (ay mami....mami perdona me) perdon madre mia

Mami im sorry i know i probably broke your heart im just like papi

you stood by me right from the start i love you mami from your son youll always be my shining star made me proud to be part of a family thanx ma you never lied to me or tried to be somebody your not you told me how to be a proper g just like grandpa and always told me to be tough in a problem you cant solve never abanded me always sang me to sleep with sweet La-La byes ma i apalagize i swear it on my fathers eyes make up for all the lies overgrow old and wise lifes to short as young as i am i cant afford to die is all nice so i praise god you still alive 65 still giving your grandson piggy rides i wonder why when i was young i wanted guns and knifes puffin blunts getting high just hangin with the guys tyme flys just like back to the future watchin my son now is another reason why i salut you a trooper a super women from Cuba good in cooking,shyt my moms las reina de las tuffas no hay excusas
the truth is that i went to far cause if not i wouldnt have been behind bars locked up sleeping on cots never forgot you an pop's bailed me out on the spot soon as i got home my mom started landing the knot's that meant you love me a lot i made you suffer a lot inside you hurting but outside you looking tough as a rock

up in the bronx growing up in the profess of blocks where you cant trust nobody an the buses dont stop we lived the hard-knock life far from nice mom was right

pops would take the better last doller on the cock fights thanx to christ i rock mickes for a lunch prize tryna do was right paying you back for what you sacraficed

(Chorus)

Hey mama sorry for the things that i have done (you
