o stella maris you're my star stand on ground look up at her just hanging in the gold stones just hanging there face froze

but i think i see her smiling

gold

o stella maris you're my star in your blue blue tavern you light my lantern o stella's large pink on her face glowing this place

a place for heroes only

o stella maris you're my star pin you to my chest sell you to the rest wish as i kiss her gown send those angels down to woo me now i think i see her smiling
gold
